

Steve Roycroft

Chief Executive Officer, RANE

Steve Roycroft is an accomplished business leader with over 25 years of operating experience ranging from launching start-ups to running multi-billion dollar global enterprises. These include building and scaling businesses in the Financial Services, GRC, Technology, Healthcare, and Media industries.

Over the past 9 years Steve has served as CEO and member of the board of directors at RANE, a global risk intelligence company providing risk professionals with critical insights and analysis to better anticipate, monitor, and respond to emerging threats.

Earlier in his career, Steve led the commercial efforts for CCBN (Corporate Communications Broadcast Network), a pioneering network-based financial information and technology company. After seven years of rapid growth, CCBN was successfully sold to Thomson Reuters and became part of its Corporate Services division. Over the next 8 years, Steve led this division as Global Managing Director. During that period, the business substantially grew to serve more than 7,000 companies globally with information and workflow solutions for finance, compliance, research, and communication professionals.

Prior to joining RANE, Steve led the day-to-day operations of inVentiv Health Commercial, a diversified information, technology, and services company serving the global life sciences and healthcare sectors. With over 13,000 employees inVentiv was a market leader in providing drug development support services and all aspects of commercializing brands for the pharmaceutical industry.

In addition to these operating roles Steve has served as a board member and advisor to Smarsh, FRT-Financial Recovery Technologies, and Aktana. He is also a member of the Risk and Security Council for the Nasdaq Center for Board Excellence. Steve is a graduate of Stonehill College with a B.S. in Business Administration.
