

The background is a dark blue gradient. On the left side, there is a vertical column of binary code (0s and 1s) that appears to be part of a larger digital display or screen. On the right side, there are several out-of-focus, circular bokeh lights in shades of orange, yellow, and red, creating a sense of depth and light. The overall aesthetic is high-tech and digital.

INVESTMENT MANAGEMENT REGULATORY UNIVERSITY

2026

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

ERIN K. CHO

PARTNER | WASHINGTON DC

ERINCHO@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 202 263 3066

Erin has extensive experience advising financial institutions, asset managers, insurance companies, and other retirement plan service providers with respect to the many and varied services and financial products they offer to US pension plans. She advises on the structuring and offering of investment vehicles of all types to ERISA and governmental plans including alternative investment and lifetime income funds for defined contribution plans, private credit funds, private equity funds, real estate funds, hedge funds, bank collective trusts, and insurance company separate accounts. She counsels plan sponsors on all aspects of fiduciary compliance and represents clients in front of the Department of Labor on advisory opinion and exemption requests as well as in audits and investigations. Erin regularly writes on pension investment matters for a variety of publications and has been recognized by Chambers USA, The Legal 500 and The Best Lawyers in America.

JODI ERLANDSEN

COUNSEL | NEW YORK

JERLANDSEN@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 212 506 2250

Jodi Erlandsen leverages nearly thirty years of experience to assist clients in the investment management industry, including as general counsel for several investment advisers, and a broker-dealer, offering traditional and alternative products and services.

Jodi brings a wide breadth of experience with investment adviser registration and exemption requirements, international regulatory matters and non-US investment advisers, administering compliance programs, fund formation, asset management mergers and acquisitions and lift-outs, extensive contract review, ongoing legal and compliance matters affecting separately managed accounts, wrap account and private fund management, as well as technical securities law questions impacting both retail and institutional managers.

ADAM D. KANTER

PARTNER | WASHINGTON DC

AKANTER@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 202 263 3164

Adam Kanter counsels US and non-US investment advisers, investment companies, and other financial services firms on a variety of regulatory, compliance, examination, enforcement, and transactional matters.

Adam has advised clients on a wide range of investment management matters, including formation, registration, and ongoing compliance issues of investment advisers and investment companies. Clients turn to him when adapting to new regulations, such as the amended marketing rule under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and the amended fair value rule under the Investment Company Act of 1940. Additionally, he helps with the preparation of compliance policies and procedures, registration statements, proxy statements, "no-action" letter requests, exemptive applications, comment letters, and corporate documents.

DAVID J. LIZMI

PARTNER | NEW YORK

DLIZMI@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 212 506 2243

David Lizmi represents corporate and individual clients across a diverse range of legal areas, including in AI, cyber, and tech-related litigation as well as advising clients on the implementation of emerging technologies. David draws on his deep experience litigating in the areas of cybercrime, data privacy, and complex commercial disputes. As a former Assistant United States Attorney in the Eastern District of New York, David served as the founding member and Co-Chief of the EDNY Cybercrime Task Force and the Computer Hacking and Intellectual Property Coordinator where he investigated and tried cases involving international cybercrime, data-breaches, and intellectual property theft.

PETER M. MCCAMMAN

COUNSEL | WASHINGTON DC

PMCCAMMAN@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 202 263 3299

Peter McCamman represents investment advisers and investment companies (including mutual funds, closed-end funds, and funds of funds) as well as private funds and their sponsors.

Peter advises clients on a range of investment management and related regulatory matters, including formation, registration, ongoing operation, compliance, and reorganization of investment advisers and investment companies. He advises clients on investment management regulatory and business matters; preparation and review of compliance policies and procedures; SEC examinations and inquiries, comments letters and correspondence; “mock” examinations, targeted compliance and business practice reviews; internal investigations; registration statements and forms; corporate documents; and other regulatory and business filings.

LAUREN R. NOLL

PARTNER | CHICAGO

LFNOLL@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 312 701 8253

Lauren Noll is a partner in Mayer Brown's litigation practice and serves as the Firm's Deputy General Counsel. Lauren advises the Firm's management and attorneys on a variety of legal and risk issues.

Lauren previously focused on complex commercial and class-action litigation involving breach of contract, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, accountant malpractice, business torts, telecommunications and securities laws. She is experienced in all aspects of civil litigation, including dispositive motions, discovery issues and depositions.

In addition to her trial work, Lauren also has practiced appellate litigation. She has written numerous briefs in the federal and state appellate courts, argued before the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit and filed numerous briefs in the federal and state trial courts focusing on breach of contract, business torts and securities laws. Reflecting her experience in appellate practice, in the past Lauren has taught courses in appellate advocacy as an adjunct professor at Loyola University Chicago School of Law. She is fluent in French.

Before first joining Mayer Brown in 2001, Lauren clerked for the Honorable Kenneth F. Ripple of the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

JOHN H. ROTH

GENERAL COUNSEL | ADDICUS ADVISORS

JOHN.ROTH@ADDICUSADVISORS.COM +1 662 371 4124

John Roth serves as the General Counsel for Addicus Advisors, an investment advisory firm and multi-family office. Prior to Addicus, John served as the Deputy General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer for Nassau Asset Management, General Counsel and Chief Compliance Officer for Venor Capital Management, Vice President and Deputy Chief Compliance Officer for Harbinger Capital Partners, and Assistant General Counsel for Harbert Management Corporation. John earned a B.S. in Finance from Auburn University, M.A. in Banking & Finance from the University of Alabama, J.D. (Magna Cum Laude) from Samford University, LL.M. (Taxation) from New York University, and Ed.D. from New York University. He also serves as an adjunct professor at the NYU Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development where his academic research focused on ethics in the investment management industry.

