

International Terms of Business

A. General Terms

Introduction

Mayer Brown is a global services provider comprising associated legal practices that are separate entities, including Mayer Brown LLP (Illinois, USA), Mayer Brown International LLP (England & Wales), Mayer Brown Hong Kong LLP (a Hong Kong limited liability partnership) (“Mayer Brown HK”) and Tauli & Chequer Advogados (a Brazilian law partnership) (collectively, the “Mayer Brown Practices”). The Mayer Brown Practices are established in various jurisdictions and may be a legal person or a partnership. PK Wong & Nair LLC (“PKWN”) is the constituent Singapore law practice of our licensed joint law venture in Singapore, Mayer Brown PK Wong & Nair Pte. Ltd. Details of the individual Mayer Brown Practices and PKWN can be found in the Legal Notices section of our website.

These international terms (the “International Terms”) are the general terms that govern the relationship between each or any Mayer Brown Practice and you. Additional terms may apply to the services provided by specific Mayer Brown Practices in a Particular Matter (as defined below). In these International Terms, “we” or “us” means the Mayer Brown Practice providing you with services in any specific matter and “you” means the person or entity to whom we provide our services.

When you instruct or engage any Mayer Brown Practice on a new matter (“Particular Matter”), we will normally confirm your instructions or engagement in writing (an “Engagement Letter”). These International Terms and the Engagement Letter (which may include additional terms relating to a Particular Matter), if any, together form the contract (the “Engagement Contract”) between you and the Mayer Brown Practice specified in the Engagement Letter (the “Principal Mayer Brown Practice”). A Mayer Brown Practice may, as agent on your behalf, engage another Mayer Brown Practice to work alongside it on a Particular Matter, if appropriate. In that case, the applicable terms specified in part B of these International Terms will also govern your relationship with that other Mayer Brown Practice.

A Mayer Brown Practice may, as agent on your behalf, engage PKWN to work alongside us on a matter if appropriate on its standard terms of engagement, a copy of which will be supplied to you on request. In any event, paragraphs A.9.5 (Conflicts of interest – Advance waiver) and A.9.6 (Conflicts of interest and confidentiality) will apply equally to PKWN and matters undertaken by it.

You are only a client of a Mayer Brown Practice in a Particular Matter if that Mayer Brown Practice is providing services to you in such Particular Matter, and no Mayer Brown Practice will have liability in Particular Matters where it is not providing services.

If you have your own outside counsel guidelines, billing guidelines, or other terms (collectively “Guidelines”), those Guidelines will only apply if and only to the extent that a partner of a Mayer Brown Practice expressly agrees to them on our behalf in writing; for these purposes, accepting Guidelines through an e-billing system as a condition of submitting a bill will not constitute agreement to those Guidelines.

Each Mayer Brown Practice will apply the applicable professional conduct rules for its local jurisdiction in the Particular Matters for which it is engaged.

A.1 Our services

A.1.1 Scope of our services

The scope of our services in a Particular Matter will be limited to those described in the related Engagement Letter and to any additional tasks in such Particular Matter that we accept in writing.

You will provide all relevant information promptly to enable us to provide the services.

We will not advise on the tax or insurance implications (including coverage) of any Particular Matter or course of action in any Particular Matter or provide notices to insurers or re-insurers unless (and then only to the extent) agreed in writing. We are not responsible for checking formulas nor for the accuracy of figures that are provided to us by you or a third party.

Our services in a transaction are limited to advising on legal issues arising in the negotiation, documentation and closing of the transaction and do not include giving you financial or business advice as to the merits of the transaction.

A.1.2 Completion of a Particular Matter

Upon completion of our work on a Particular Matter, we will not update you on legal developments related to such Particular Matter unless we have agreed to do so in our Engagement Letter.

A.1.3 Authority to instruct us and receive advice

Where our client is an entity, we will assume that any of its personnel who gives instructions to us has authority to do so and to receive advice on behalf of the entity, unless you tell us otherwise in writing.

A.1.4 Joint ventures, partnerships, trade associations, etc.

If you are a trade association, partnership, joint venture or similar joint entity only that entity will be our client and, unless otherwise agreed in writing, we will only represent it and not its individual members, partners or venturers.

A.1.5 Affiliates

We only represent the entity named in the Engagement Letter and not its stockholders or other Affiliates (as defined in paragraph A.18 (Definitions)) and therefore we are able to represent another client with interests adverse to your stockholders or other Affiliates without obtaining consent from you. Even if you choose to give us confidential information about any Affiliate, this will not of itself create a lawyer-client relationship between the Affiliate and any Mayer Brown Practice.

A.1.6 Liability in respect of other parties

Where we instruct another party on your behalf (for example, a barrister, local counsel, expert or co-counsel) we will not be liable for the services provided by that other party.

A.1.7 Binding Arbitration

Binding arbitration will apply to disputes arising from or in connection with an Engagement Contract where the Principal Mayer Brown Practice is the US LLP (including the Dubai Branch), Tauli & Chequer or the Hong Kong or Singapore offices. Please refer to the separate arbitration provisions included in Part C of these International terms for each applicable Mayer Brown Practice. Binding arbitration will not apply to disputes arising from or in connection with an Engagement Contract where any other Mayer Brown Practice is the Principal Mayer Brown Practice.

A.2 Charges

A.2.1 Your agreement to pay

You will pay the fees and other charges billed by the Principal Mayer Brown Practice and, where appropriate, any other Mayer Brown Practice. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, you are required to pay such fees and charges whether or not a Particular Matter proceeds to closing or is otherwise concluded in the ordinary course.

A.2.2 Professional fees

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, our fees will be based principally on the time we spend on your matter. From time to time, we review our hourly rates and we will notify you in writing of any increase in rates that (unless otherwise agreed in writing) will be applicable to the Particular Matter. Subject to paragraph B.1.4 (Contract lawyers or paraprofessionals) (in the case of the US offices), if contract lawyers or paraprofessionals are assigned to work on any Particular Matter, whether or not they are employed through an independent agency, the Mayer Brown Practice will charge you hourly rates based upon its then hourly rates for Mayer Brown lawyers and paraprofessionals with similar experience and qualifications.

After consultation, our fees may additionally take account of other factors including the complexity or urgency of the matter, the specialized knowledge and skill required and, if appropriate, the value of the property or subject matter involved and overall outcome.

Applicable sales or service taxes will be added to your bill where appropriate.

Without limiting any other provision in this paragraph A.2.2, you will pay us at our hourly rates (as adjusted from time to time) for activities incidental to our representation of you, whether during or after the termination of the lawyer-client relationship. This includes, but is not limited to, our time spent responding to subpoenas, searching for and producing documents, preparing for testimony and testifying, and otherwise dealing with your requests or third party claims or actions relating to a matter we are handling or have handled for you. You will also pay or reimburse us for all reasonable expenses and other charges in connection with such incidental activities, including, but not limited to, the fees of outside counsel that we retain.

A.2.3 Estimate of fees

An estimate is our indication of our likely charges for a Particular Matter and is based on the information known at the time the estimate is given. Unless we agree otherwise in writing, any estimate does not amount to a promise or agreement that we will perform our services within a fixed time or for a fixed or capped fee. An estimate is subject to revision and is not binding on us.

A.2.4 Fixed fees

A fixed fee is an agreement by us in writing to render services in a Particular Matter for a stated fee. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, if we agree to a fixed fee and undertake work outside the agreed scope of the Particular Matter, we will charge for the additional work on the basis referred to in paragraph A.2.2 (Professional fees). A fixed fee is premised upon our receipt of timely and complete instructions from you.

A.2.5 Expenses

Unless we agree otherwise, we will instruct third parties that we engage on your behalf to seek payment from you directly and we will have no liability for amounts owing to the third party from you. If we incur or pay certain expenses on your behalf in connection with an Engagement Contract, including but not limited to third party fees, court fees, stamp duty, registration or search fees, they will be payable by you as a charge in addition to our fees and other non-fee charges in each Particular Matter and, unless we agree otherwise, you will provide us with funds in advance to pay those expenses. Non-fee charges may include photocopying, telephone charges and other charges notified by the Mayer Brown Practice. Additional sales or service taxes may be payable by you on some of these expenses.

A.3 Billing arrangements and settlement of our accounts

A.3.1 Our bills

We may send you bills at monthly or other intervals while your Particular Matter is in progress and in any event upon completion of the Particular Matter.

A.3.2 Payment of full amount

Our bills must be paid without any deduction or withholding on account of taxes or charges of any nature. If a deduction or withholding is required by law you must pay such additional amount as is necessary so that we receive the full amount of our bill. We also may issue a bill in which our fees are grossed up to account for such deduction or withholding.

A.3.3 Interest

Our bills are payable upon receipt. We may charge interest on any amount outstanding for 30 days from the due date for payment until the bill is paid in full at a rate per annum equal to the lesser of (a) four percent plus the most currently available US Government 10 year yield as quoted in the Financial Times (such yield to start on the due date for payment and adjusted every 30 days thereafter based on the then most current quote of yield) and (b) if limited by the law of the jurisdiction of the Mayer Brown Practice that issued the bill, the highest rate in effect (calculated in the manner prescribed by such law) for late payments in commercial transactions.

A.3.4 Charges of other Relevant Practices

A Mayer Brown Practice may engage another Mayer Brown Practice or PKWN (each a “Relevant Practice”) on your behalf. If so, each Relevant Practice may issue separate bills or the fees and expenses of other Relevant Practices may be included in a bill issued by the Principal Mayer Brown Practice. Such fees and expenses may be expressed as a separate disbursement to meet local requirements.

A.3.5 Liability for our fees

If we agree to accept payment of our fees and expenses from a third party you will remain liable to us for them in the event of non-payment. We may disclose to the third party information reasonably necessary to collect payment.

A.4 File and information management

A.4.1 Format and retention of files

We keep our files partly in paper form and partly in electronic form.

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, once the Particular Matter is closed we will retain the related files in accordance with applicable professional conduct rules and our then-effective records retention policy. At the end of the retention period we may dispose of the files without notice to you. We will not destroy original signed documents we have agreed in writing to deposit in safe custody or documents we are required to retain as a matter of law or by our regulators.

A.4.2 Costs of retrieval of files and documents from storage

If, after a Particular Matter is closed, you ask us to retrieve any material belonging to you from the file we will do so without passing on the direct cost of retrieval. However, we may charge you for time spent in complying with your request and answering any inquiries from you. We may also charge for delivery to you of any materials.

A.4.3 Copyright

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the copyright in the original materials we produce for you belongs to us. The fees you pay for our work, however, permit you to make use of such materials for the purpose for which they are created.

A.5 Termination

A.5.1 Your right to terminate

You may terminate our acting for you in any Particular Matter at any time by giving us notice in writing.

A.5.2 Our right to terminate

Subject to any limitations in applicable professional conduct rules, we may terminate acting for you in any Particular Matter at any time by giving you notice in writing.

A.5.3 Payment of fees and expenses on termination

You must pay our outstanding fees and expenses (including those accrued but not yet billed) if you or we terminate our Engagement Contract in connection with a Particular Matter.

A.5.4 Timing of termination of an engagement

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, an Engagement Contract in connection with a Particular Matter will come to an end or be deemed to have come to an end at the completion of our legal work in the Particular Matter or, if earlier, 12 months after the relevant Mayer Brown Practice last rendered any billable services to you on the Particular Matter. The lawyer-client relationship between you and the relevant Mayer Brown Practice will terminate at that point unless the relevant Mayer Brown Practice is providing other services under an Engagement Contract in another Particular Matter that has not then terminated or been deemed to have been terminated. Even if we inform you of developments in the law by newsletters or similar alerts, or we or persons associated with us are named as (or become) a recipient of a notice on your behalf, this will not create or revive any lawyer-client relationship.

In some Mayer Brown Practices, we may maintain a system to calendar due dates for the payment of maintenance and/or annuity fees relating to, or the renewal dates for the preservation of certain legal rights attaching to, intellectual property. In connection with this system, we may notify the person or entity listed in our records as the holder of such rights of the necessity of paying maintenance and/or annuity fees or obtaining a renewal in order to preserve such rights. Neither the maintenance of such system nor any such notification or renewal will constitute the provision of services for the purposes of determining whether there is a continuing lawyer-client relationship.

A.6 Communication

A.6.1 Use of email

We may communicate with you by email unless you ask us not to.

We prefer to encrypt email that we send to you (whether it contains confidential information or not), provided we are able to implement mutually acceptable encryption standards and protocols.

You are responsible for protecting your system from viruses and any other harmful codes or devices. We try to eliminate them from email and attachments but we do not accept liability for any that remain.

We may monitor or access any or all email sent to us. In addition, we scan incoming email for spam, viruses and other undesirable material, which may mean that email communications do not reach the intended recipient. Therefore, you should always follow up each important email by contacting the person to whom it has been sent.

A.6.2 Marketing materials

We may from time to time provide you with details relating to the Mayer Brown Practices and the services we provide, including updates on legal developments. If at any time you do not wish to receive that information, please notify us in writing. Our provision of such materials does not in itself create a client relationship between you and us.

A.7 Money laundering and other notifications to authorities

A.7.1 Notifications to regulators

In many jurisdictions in which we operate, we are required by law or regulators to put in place procedures to prevent money laundering. If we know or suspect that a matter or transaction involves money laundering we may, in accordance with our statutory obligations and those procedures, be required to make a notification of our knowledge or suspicion to the relevant regulatory authorities.

When required by rules, regulations or best practices, we may also disclose certain types of activities undertaken for clients, such as lobbying.

A.7.2 Mandatory tax reporting

In certain jurisdictions, rules or regulations require taxpayers engaging in certain types of transactions to disclose their participation in such transactions to the tax authorities, and in some cases we are also required to report transactions to the tax authorities (or disclose information to other service providers connected with the matter). In some circumstances, we may be obliged to maintain a list of and notify the tax authorities (notwithstanding any otherwise applicable duty of confidentiality) of the names of investors and other details. Depending on the circumstances, we may be unable to seek your consent or inform you that we have made such notifications.

We will be entitled to charge for any work required to determine whether any transaction or arrangement is reportable. You will instruct any other service providers connected with the matter to provide us with copies of any reports they make under such laws.

A.7.3 Liability

We do not accept any liability for any loss or damage you or anyone else suffers by any actions we take, or any delay or failure or refusal to act, if done or made in good faith to comply with any anti-money laundering or sanctions law or regulation of any jurisdiction. We may delay or refuse to make any payment or transfer of monies or refuse instructions relating to the same, or to any Particular Matter, if we determine appropriate so as to comply with any anti-money laundering or sanctions law or regulation or related investigation. We do not accept any liability for any loss or damage you or anyone else suffers by actions taken by any financial institution with which we deal.

A.7.4 Client due diligence requirements

Applicable anti-money laundering and other similar legislation and requirements and our internal procedures may require us to identify and verify the identity of our clients and in some cases also their beneficial owners, and to conduct other background checks. We may be required to retain and update our records of the information obtained. We may also be required to make detailed inquiries as to a number of matters, including as to the source of funds being used in Particular Matters on which we advise and the beneficial owner(s) of them. We refer to these requirements as the "CDD Requirements".

Where possible, we try to meet the CDD Requirements using information from public sources and/or by electronic verification. However, we may need to ask you for (and retain) documents and other information for this purpose. We may provide copies of this information to any other adviser engaged on your behalf for their use in meeting similar requirements imposed on them, or to our bank in connection with its CDD Requirements for the operation of our client trust accounts.

We may delay commencing work, decline to act or (if appropriate) cease to act if the CDD Requirements are not met to our satisfaction and within a reasonable period of time.

We may charge you in the normal way for work that we have to do and for expenses incurred for the purpose of meeting the CDD Requirements.

A.7.5 Receipt of funds and use of client accounts

We do not accept cash without prior agreement.

We do not routinely accept transaction or settlement funds on behalf of our clients. You must obtain our written permission, to be exercised in our own sole discretion, prior to transferring transaction or settlement funds to us. We may retain or return unexpected or unidentified receipts pending further investigation. We also may charge for any checks we deem necessary regarding the source of funds and the beneficial owners to meet the CDD Requirements.

If we have agreed to provide client account facilities to receive, hold and transfer funds in connection with a Particular Matter, such use is at your own risk. We do not accept liability for any loss or damage you suffer if any bank that we use collapses, or for reasons outside of our control is otherwise unable to transact business or transfer funds in a timely manner or at all.

A.8 No third party reliance

Our services are provided for your benefit alone and solely for the purposes of the Particular Matter to which they relate. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, our work may not be used or relied on by any third party, even if such third party may have agreed to pay our bill.

A.9 Confidentiality, disclosure and conflicts

A.9.1 Confidentiality and disclosure

We owe you a duty of confidentiality in respect of information relating to you that we obtain while dealing with your Particular Matters. We will not disclose such information except as specifically provided in these International Terms or as required or permitted by the applicable professional conduct rules. We owe the same duty of confidentiality to all our clients. Accordingly, if at any time we possess information in respect of which we owe a duty of confidentiality to a former or another current client, we will not be required to disclose such information to you nor use it on your behalf even though the information may be material to your Particular Matter.

A.9.2 Disclosure to certain third parties

Our duty to keep confidential information relating to you or your Particular Matter on which we are acting, or have acted, for you is subject to any disclosures we consider in good faith we are required to make to any police, governmental, regulatory or supervisory authority under any statutory or regulatory obligations (including those described in paragraph A.7 (Money laundering and other notifications to authorities)) or in accordance with any internal procedures that we have put in place to meet those obligations.

We may, when required by our insurers, auditors or other professional advisers (including independent counsel or debt collection agencies) provide to them information relating to you or details of a Particular Matter or Matters on which we are acting or have acted for you.

A.9.3 Disclosure to other Relevant Practices

We may disclose confidential information relating to you, or Particular Matters, to other Mayer Brown Practices or PWKN, all of which are bound by a duty of confidentiality.

A.9.4 Publicity

We may disclose that you are a client and describe in general terms the work we do for you unless you ask us in writing not to do so. However, we will not, without your consent, disclose that we are acting, or have acted, for you on a Particular Matter if the matter remains otherwise confidential.

A.9.5 Conflicts of interest – Advance waiver

We may now or in the future without your consent act for your competitors, adverse parties or our other clients whose interests are or may be opposed to or in conflict with yours or your Affiliates in matters not substantially related to Particular Matters we are handling for you (including in transactions, bankruptcy, insolvency, arbitration, litigation or other forms of dispute resolution). Where we are acting for you on a Particular Matter, however, we will not act for another client on the same matter unless and to the extent that we are permitted to do so by the applicable professional conduct rules.

A.9.6 Conflicts of interest and confidentiality

Subject to the applicable professional conduct rules, where we have information in respect of which we owe you a duty of confidentiality and which is or may be material to a matter on which we are acting for another client, we may act for that other client, provided we put in place arrangements, such as “ethical” or “information” screens, which are reasonably appropriate in the circumstances to ensure that the confidentiality of your information is maintained.

A.9.7 Lawyer investment entities

You should be aware that certain entities owned by our current or former lawyers and senior staff (“Lawyer Investment Entities”) may hold investments in funds or companies that (a) are affiliated with you, (b) hold, directly or indirectly, investments in your debt or equity securities, or (c) conduct commercial transactions with you (each, a “Passive Investment”). The Lawyer Investment Entities have no management or other control rights in such funds or companies. You agree that, subject to the applicable professional rules, we may act for you, notwithstanding any Passive Investment in you or your affiliates, and we may represent you in matters adverse to parties in whom a Lawyer Investment Entity holds a Passive Investment. Our judgment will not be compromised by virtue of any Passive Investment, but if that conclusion changes in relation to any Particular Matter, we will advise you of the risks arising and implement appropriate safeguards.

A.10 Multiple representations

A.10.1 Joint representations

Where we act for you jointly with other clients in a Particular Matter, we may disclose to all the parties we represent any confidential information we obtain from you and the content of our communications with you. To that extent, the advice we give will cease to be privileged as between you and the other clients. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, you will remain jointly and severally liable for our fees even if you have made different arrangements with the other parties. If a conflict arises during the course of a Particular Matter, we may need to cease to act for you unless the conflict can be otherwise resolved. In those circumstances, we may continue to act for some or all of the other clients. Representation of an association, partnership, joint venture or similar joint entity is not a joint representation. Where you and another client or clients jointly instruct us, we will assume that any of you has authority to give instructions on behalf of you unless any of you tell us otherwise in writing.

A.10.2 Representing multiple bidders

If a Particular Matter involves a competitive tender, auction or bidding situation, we may represent other bidders in addition to you, provided we implement internal procedures which are reasonably appropriate to ensure the confidentiality of your information. Lawyers who represented losing bidders may represent the winning bidder once the bid has been awarded, but we will continue to maintain the confidentiality of a losing bidder’s information in accordance with the applicable professional conduct rules.

A.11 Data

A.11.1 Use of data

We process data, including personal data, in accordance with the Privacy Notice and the Privacy Policy for California and Texas Consumers on our website. We may use cloud computing systems, cognitive technology platforms or third-party technology solutions to support our delivery of services to you and our operational functions, subject to appropriate technological and security protections and in compliance with applicable laws relating to the use of data (including personal data). Data may be shared with other Mayer Brown Practices and third parties in accordance with the Privacy Notice on our website.

In the course of delivering our services to you, we may use legal technology tools, including generative AI tools (“GAT”), when those tools reasonably provide us with the ability to protect your confidential and personal information. Such tools may include document comparison, review, drafting and automation tools. In addition, many legal research tools may incorporate AI elements that we cannot deactivate. We have also implemented “closed system” GAT, which means that any data used or produced by the GAT will remain confidential to us and will not be shared with other users. We will not use any closed system GAT if you have informed us in writing that such tools are prohibited.

From time to time, we may use third parties to provide typing, photocopying, printing, data handling and other business support services, such as e-signing platforms, e-billing and matter management platforms and document review platforms, subject to appropriate contractual duties of confidentiality. Where we engage a third party at your request or with your approval, we will not be liable for the third party’s handling of your data or the other services provided by it.

A.11.2 Personal data

We share personal data in accordance with the terms of our Privacy Notice and pursuant to appropriate contractual arrangements.

You must make sure that personal data you provide and your instructions to us as regards its use do not breach your obligations under applicable data privacy laws and regulations. If you are providing personal data about individuals, you are responsible for providing any relevant data privacy information to the individuals to whom the data relates.

We are subject to various data protection and data privacy laws in the jurisdictions in which we operate. Further information about your rights under applicable data protection laws may be found in the Privacy Notice on our website. You may contact the Mayer Brown privacy team with any enquiries by emailing privacy@mayerbrown.com.

A.12 No waiver of our privilege

We represent many clients and handle a great number of complex matters. As a result, from time to time, issues may arise that raise questions under the applicable professional conduct rules, including possible disputes with a client and conflicts of interest issues. When such issues arise, we generally seek the advice of our internal counsel (or, if we choose, outside counsel). You agree that we, in our own discretion, may do so. We consider such consultations to be protected from disclosure under the lawyer-client privilege. Our ongoing representation of you will not result in a waiver of any lawyer-client privilege that we may have to protect the confidentiality of our communications with such counsel.

A.13 Force majeure

We will not be liable to you if we are unable to perform our services in a Particular Matter as a result of any cause beyond our reasonable control. If this happens, we will tell you as soon as reasonably practicable.

A.14 Assignment

A.14.1 Permitted assignment

We may assign, or may assign the benefit of, any Engagement Contract to any successor partnership or corporate entity that will carry on the business or any part of the business of the relevant Principal Mayer Brown Practice. You will accept the performance by such assignee of the Engagement Contract in substitution for the Principal Mayer Brown Practice. References in these International Terms and in any relevant Engagement Letter to the Principal Mayer Brown Practice include any such assignee.

A.14.2 Other assignment

Subject to paragraph A.14.1 (Permitted assignment), neither you nor we may assign or transfer the benefit or burden of an Engagement Contract, or assign claims or causes of action arising in connection with work undertaken pursuant to an Engagement Contract.

A.14.3 Assignment by other Mayer Brown Practices

References in these International Terms or in any Engagement Letter to another Mayer Brown Practice includes any partnership or corporate entity to or by which all or part of the business of the other Mayer Brown Practice is from time to time transferred or carried on.

A.15 Associated Persons

Unless the Engagement Letter expressly states otherwise, you accept the provisions of the Engagement Contract on your own behalf and as agent for each Associated Person (as defined in paragraph A.18 (Definitions)). You confirm that you have, or will have, the authority to retain us on behalf of each Associated Person. You will procure that each Associated Person will act on the basis that they are a party to and are bound by the relevant Engagement Contract. All references in these International Terms (other than in this paragraph A.15) and in the Engagement Letter to “you” (and derivatives of it) mean you and each Associated Person.

A.16 Limits on representation

A.16.1 Representing regulated entities

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, when we represent a regulated entity in a Particular Matter, we will not be responsible for advising the regulated entity on compliance with applicable laws and regulations arising out of its legal or regulatory status or the general nature of its business or on its internal governance issues.

A.16.2 Refiling; re-recording

Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we do not undertake responsibility for advising you upon or ensuring compliance with periodic refiling or re-recording requirements.

A.16.3 Beneficial ownership reporting (including under the U.S. Corporate Transparency Act)

Unless agreed in writing, we are not responsible for advising you regarding any obligation you or any Associated Person may have under any applicable law or regulation (including the U.S. Corporate Transparency Act) to report the beneficial ownership of legal entities, nor are we responsible for filing such information on your behalf, even if we have assisted you in forming or registering those legal entities or have otherwise advised you regarding them. If we agree to advise you regarding any reporting obligation or to make any filing on your behalf, we will only be responsible for assisting you with those specific reporting obligations or filings we have identified in writing. We will not be responsible for assisting you with any ongoing or periodic re-filing obligations, even if we become aware of them, unless agreed in writing. If we assist you in preparing or filing any beneficial ownership report, you will ensure that all information you provide us is true, correct and complete, and will notify us immediately if any information you previously provided ceases to be true, correct or complete. Any information you share with us may be kept for our internal onboarding purposes and for use in providing legal services.

A.17 Exclusions and limitations of our liability

A.17.1 No unlawful limitation of liability

Nothing in these International Terms or any Engagement Letter shall exclude, restrict or limit any liability arising from fraud or dishonesty or other liabilities which cannot lawfully be limited or excluded under the applicable professional conduct rules. If any part of an exclusion or limitation of liability clause is found to be void or ineffective, the remaining provisions shall continue to be effective.

A.17.2 Proportional liability

If you suffer loss or damage in respect of which we are liable, you agree that our liability will be limited to a just and equitable proportion of the total loss or damage you suffer having regard to the extent of the responsibility of any other party who may also be liable to you in respect of such loss and damage. Our liability in these circumstances will not be increased because of any actual or potential shortfall in recovery from another party whether due to any exclusion or limitation of liability that you have agreed to with another party, difficulty in enforcement, settlement of claims or any other reason.

A.17.3 Liability Cap

We may, from time to time, if permitted by local laws and the applicable professional conduct rules and if agreed with you, limit our aggregate liability to you for a Particular Matter or Matters to an amount specified in the relevant Engagement Letter or another written agreement (a “Liability Cap”).

Any Liability Cap will apply on an aggregate basis to all liability (including interest and costs) that we and any other Relevant Practice may have to you and any Associated Person (including third parties when a consent to such third parties is given under paragraph A.8 (No third party reliance)) in respect of the relevant Particular Matter or Matters, including for breach of contract and for negligence.

Nothing in these International Terms or any Engagement Letter will operate to limit any Relevant Practice’s liability below any minimum level established by its applicable professional conduct rules. The liability of any Relevant Practice whose professional conduct rules prohibit it from limiting its liability will be excluded from the calculation of the Liability Cap.

A.17.4 Time period for claims

Without prejudice to any exclusion or limitation of liability contained in any Engagement Contract, you must bring any claim within 10 years of the commission of the act or omission alleged to give rise to the cause of action or, if earlier, the date on which any limitation period expires under applicable law.

A.18 Definitions

In these International Terms and (where applicable) in an Engagement Letter any reference to a statute or a statutory provision includes any consolidation, re-enactment, modification or replacement of the same from time to time and:

“Affiliate” means in relation to an entity any person who or entity that controls or is under common control with or is controlled by that entity.

“Associated Person” in a Particular Matter, means (subject to paragraph A.8 (No third party reliance)) any Affiliate that is with our agreement in writing a recipient of and entitled to rely on our services in relation to that Particular Matter.

A.19 Inconsistencies

In the event of any inconsistency between an Engagement Letter and these International Terms, the Engagement Letter will prevail.

A.20 Governing law

Each Engagement Contract will, unless otherwise provided in the Engagement Letter or these International Terms, be subject to and governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the Principal Mayer Brown Practice for that Engagement Contract has its principal place of business.

A.21 Application of these International Terms and amendments

These International Terms supersede any earlier terms of business to which we may have agreed and, unless otherwise agreed in writing, apply to the services referred to in any Engagement Letter accompanying these terms and all subsequent services we provide to you.

B. Additional Terms

B.1 Additional terms applicable to the US offices of Mayer Brown LLP (the “US LLP”) only

B.1.1 Provision for work performed by lawyers resident in our New York office

In the event you have a fee dispute with us in an amount that is between US$1,000 and US$50,000, you may have the right to seek resolution of that dispute in an arbitration under Part 137 of the Rules of the Chief Administrator, New York State Office of Court Administration. The Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C., Secs. 1–16) will govern the interpretation of, enforcement of, and proceedings pursuant to this paragraph C.1. The binding arbitration will be administered by and in accordance with the then-existing International Institute of Conflict Prevention & Resolution’s (“CPR”) Administered Arbitration Rules, and discovery will be administered in accordance with Mode D in Schedules 1 and 2 and Mode C in Schedule 3 of the then-existing CPR Protocol on Disclosure of Documents and Presentation of Witnesses in Commercial Arbitration. Each of us will bear our own attorneys’ fees, costs, and expenses (including filing fees). The cost of arbitration (including arbitrator fees) will be shared between us pursuant to an agreed-upon allocation or, in the absence of agreement, will be shared equally.

If you or we (individually or collectively) seek less than US$3,000,000 (or the equivalent), the dispute will be decided by a sole arbitrator mutually acceptable to both of us. If either of us (or both of us collectively) seek US$3,000,000 or more (or the equivalent) at any point during the arbitration, a three-person panel of arbitrators mutually acceptable to both of us will preside. The arbitrators, and not any court, will have the exclusive authority to resolve any dispute or claim relating to the interpretation, applicability, or enforceability of the Engagement Contract, including this paragraph C.1.

If the total amount of the arbitration award is US$5,000,000 or more, inclusive of interest (or the equivalent), each of us may appeal the award to a panel of three arbitrators comprised of former appellate court judges pursuant to the CPR Arbitration Appeal Procedures. The appellate arbitration panel will review the facts and law pursuant to the standard of review that would apply if this proceeding were heard by an appellate court sitting in Chicago, Illinois.

By agreeing to arbitration, you are waiving the right to have disputes between us tried in court and the right to a jury trial. You understand that arbitration may provide only limited discovery and appellate rights and that courts may enforce an award in arbitration without reviewing it for errors of fact or law. No demand for arbitration may be sustained after the date when the institution of legal or equitable proceedings based on such claim or dispute would be barred by the applicable statutes of limitation or statute of repose if this matter were filed in court. The arbitrators are authorized to dismiss the arbitration at any stage based on a determination that the claim is time barred or for any other legally or factually supported reason. Before agreeing to arbitration, you have the right to consult with independent counsel.
