Serving the Tax Controversy Needs of In-House Tax Professionals

April 30 – May 3, 2018 | Hilton New Orleans Riverside, New Orleans, LA

THREE TAX CONTROVERSY SEMINARS IN ONE PLACE

- Federal Tax Controversy (April 30 – May 1)
- Transfer Pricing Controversy (May 2), sponsored by Mayer Brown LLP
- State and Local Tax Controversy (May 2-3), sponsored by Eversheds Sutherland LLP

2018 Features

- Federal tax controversy case study track designed for a concentrated examination of key stages of the tax controversy lifecycle. Small teams (10-12 each) are supported by dedicated advisors/instructors to provide coaching and real-time feedback.
- Issue Discussion Forums – Have your specific tax controversy questions addressed as part of your seminar experience. Bring your questions live, or post them to our dedicated, tax controversy web portal (<http://forms.tei.org/70665243260149>). Either way, have subject matter experts directly engage with you.
- Tax Research Resource Center – Display of tools and capabilities to support tax research compliance and transaction documentation needs across all disciplines (e.g., country-by-country reporting, international transfer pricing documentation, state/federal tax disputes) Research tool discussions will be embedded in selected substantive presentations, exhibit displays with collateral materials and “sign-ups” with short-term trials (including Thomson Reuters, Bloomberg Tax, and others).
- Competition and Transfer Pricing Regulators – IRS and OECD regulators to discuss key developments.
- State and Local Tax Workshops – Hands-on exercises to develop effective tax protests.
- State Tax Panels – Three separate panels comprised of industry representatives, government state tax lawyers, and state tax tribunal judges offering attendees multiple perspectives on state tax controversies.

The complete program can be found at www.tei.org. Registrations for this seminar tend to fill quickly, and we urge you to register early to reserve your place.
