

MAYER | BROWN

Transactional Liability Insurance Roundtable

NEW YORK, NY

February 25, 2020

CONFIDENTIAL – NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION

New York

Transactional Liability Insurance Roundtable

Agenda

2:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Registration

3:00 p.m. – 3:30 p.m.

Welcome & Opening Remarks

Panel Discussion I: US Underwriting – Insights from the Trenches on Substantive Issues and Trends in RWI

Bill Kucera and Joe Castelluccio of Mayer Brown will lead a deep dive discussion into some key substantive issues and trends in underwriting representations and warranties insurance.

3:30 p.m. – 4:10 p.m.

Panel Discussion II: “Specialists Spotlight” – In-depth Insights from Mayer Brown Specialists in Selected Key Areas of Interest

Panelists from three specialist areas will discuss selected subjects that are often challenging to diligence in underwriting RWI. The discussion will be led by Stephanie Duchene, Tamer Soliman and Chris Odell of Mayer Brown and will focus on the California Consumer Privacy Act, Sanctions and Export Controls, and Tax (respectively). The discussion will be moderated by Bill Kucera.

4:10 p.m. – 4:30 p.m.

Refreshment Break

4:30 p.m. – 5:10 p.m.

Panel Discussion III: Key Issues in Claims

Panelists will discuss issues related to damages and deal valuations, as well as recent developments and trends in RWI claims. The discussion will be led by Bob Harrell, Joe De Simone and Michelle Annunziata of Mayer Brown and Jeffrey Mordaunt of Stout Risius Ross; moderated by Joe Castelluccio.

5:10 p.m. – 5:40 p.m.

Panel Discussion IV: Non-US Purchasers of Transactional Insurance in the US

With increasing demand for US-style RWI coverage outside of the US, non-US buyers entering the US market and US buyers of W&I coverage outside the US have unique considerations and perspectives. Panelists from the UK and Germany will discuss these perspectives and ways that US insurers and brokers can address these considerations. The discussion will be led by Beccy Bothamley and Birgit Hübscher-Alt of Mayer Brown; moderated by Joe Castelluccio.

5:40 p.m.

Drinks Reception