

A photograph of a chess king piece standing on a dark, rocky shore. In the background, another chess piece, a knight, is visible, and the sun is setting over a body of water, creating a warm, golden glow. The sky is a mix of blue and orange hues.

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

THOMAS DEMATTEO

CHIEF COUNSEL TO SENATOR MIKE LEE, CHAIRMAN OF THE US SENATE JUDICIARY SUBCOMMITTEE ON ANTITRUST, COMPETITION POLICY AND CONSUMER RIGHTS

Thomas DeMatteo is Chief Counsel on the Senate Judiciary Committee to Senator Mike Lee. He previously served as counsel to the Assistant Attorney General of the Department of Justice Antitrust Division, where he worked closely with leadership and staff on civil merger and non-merger matters across numerous industries including, large technology platforms, defense, finance, and consumer products.

Mr. DeMatteo joined the Antitrust Division through the Attorney General's Honors Program as a Trial Attorney and previously worked at an international law firm, where he advised clients on antitrust and competition matters. He is a graduate of Washington and Lee University School of Law and the University of Rochester, where he was a member of the football team and selected to the Liberty League All-Academic Team.

TONY PETITTI

COMMISSIONER, THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Commissioner Petitti began his tenure with the Big Ten Conference on May 15, 2023, bringing nearly four decades of sports, business and media industry acumen to the role. Prior to joining the Big Ten Conference, Petitti was recruited by Liberty Media and The Baupost Group to serve as an advisor to evaluate sports and media properties. From 2014 to 2020, Petitti served as deputy commissioner and chief operating officer of Major League Baseball. As president and chief executive officer of MLB Network from 2008 to 2014, Petitti led the imagination, creation, buildout and launch of MLB Network in 50 million homes which, at the time, was the largest launch of a cable network in history. A 14-time National Sports Emmy Award winner, Petitti has also held senior executive roles at CBS Sports and ABC Sports. Petitti earned an economics degree from Haverford College in 1983, where he played catcher for the baseball team. He graduated from Harvard Law School in 1986.

ANIL GOLLAHALLI

CHIEF LEGAL OFFICER AND GENERAL COUNSEL,
THE BIG TEN CONFERENCE

Anil Gollahalli is chief legal officer and general counsel of the Big Ten Conference. In his role, Gollahalli oversees all legal, corporate governance, enterprise risk management, litigation, regulatory, corporate, and legal NCAA matters, as well as outside counsel management. Gollahalli joined the conference from the University of Oklahoma, where he served as vice president and general counsel for 14 years advising the Board of Regents and the institutions within the OU system. Prior to serving as OU general counsel, Gollahalli was the vice president for technology development at the university, managing all intellectual property assets for the university. He also practiced law in Dallas, working extensively in the intellectual property fields, and served as law clerk to the United States District Court for the Western District of Oklahoma. Gollahalli received a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering with a minor in political science from the University of Oklahoma and a juris doctorate from the University of Chicago.

JEAN-MAXIME BLUTEL

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, PARIS

JBLUTEL@MAYERBROWN.COM | +33 1 53 53 18 63

Jean-Maxime advises clients across all industries with the upstream assessment of their merger projects and with any necessary filing to the relevant merger control and foreign investment authorities. He regularly handles technically challenging cases before the European and the French competition authorities. He has significant experience in coordinating and managing multi-jurisdictional merger control and foreign direct investment ("FDI") filings with Mayer Brown's global network of offices and partner firms, and assists clients with all reporting and filing requirements under the EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation ("FSR"). Companies also turn to him for advice on broad cartel, resale price maintenance and dominance investigations and for guidance on designing and conducting risk assessments and audits concerning compliance with competition law, and for related advice and trainings.

AIRLIE GOODMAN

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, LONDON

AGOODMAN@MAYERBROWN.COM | +44 20 3130 3422

Airlie Goodman advises financial institutions and corporations on high-stakes, complex and cross-border commercial disputes and investigations (both internal and regulatory). Her experience advising on competition disputes and enforcement actions heard in the Competition Appeal Tribunal complements the Firm's antitrust capabilities.

Airlie acts for clients in a variety of sectors, with a particular emphasis on the financial and professional services, and insurance, energy and mining sectors. She has a significant interest in ESG related issues and disputes.

MARK HILLS

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, LONDON

MHILLS@MAYERBROWN.COM | +44 20 3130 3249

Mark Hills helps clients navigate global merger control and foreign direct investment regulations enabling the execution of their key transactions. He also counsels clients involved in complex antitrust investigations, often cross-border, and on day-to-day antitrust compliance, including ESG projects.

Clients value Mark's depth of expertise in the financial services sector. Before joining Mayer Brown, he spent several years working in-house at a leading European bank where he undertook a 'root and branch' review of the bank's antitrust compliance framework and risk assessment process. In addition to being the bank's legal adviser on antitrust law matters, he had day-to-day responsibility for overseeing its antitrust compliance and training program. Mark also has experience working at the UK's Competition and Markets Authority.

CHRISTIAN HORSTKOTTE

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, DÜSSELDORF

CHORSTKOTTE@MAYERBROWN.COM | +49 211 86224 0

Christian Horstkotte counsels clients on all aspects of German and European antitrust law. He focuses on complex merger control proceedings, cartel investigations, and proceedings before German and European competition authorities and courts, including follow-on litigation. Christian also advises clients in dominance matters, in the implementation of compliance programs and with respect to Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) proceedings and filings under the EU Foreign Subsidies Regulation (FSR).

NATHALIE JALABERT-DOURY

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, PARIS

NJALABERTDOURY@MAYERBROWN.COM | +33 6 80 24 29 24

Clients seek Nathalie Jalabert-Doury's representation in all aspects of antitrust and competition law at both the European and French level, including cartels; concerted practices and abuse of dominance; mergers; horizontal and vertical agreements; state aid and public procurement.

Nathalie handles a number of merger and FDI cases every year. She notably assists companies in structuring complex transactions and has acquired significant experience in obtaining clearance in phase 1 subject to sophisticated sets of remedies.

She is a leading practitioner in the field of dawn raids, advising companies on the upstream preparation and management of inspections by the European Commission and national competition authorities. She has successfully challenged searches before National and European Courts, obtaining full annulment and closure of the investigation in the landmark French Supermarkets case.

GAIL F. LEVINE

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, WASHINGTON DC

GLEVINE@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 202 263 3335

Gail Levine is a trusted advisor to clients with business-critical mergers or acquisitions facing antitrust issues. Her clients include Fortune 500 companies and PE firms, and she handles their merger control matters, represents them in investigations, and counsels them on antitrust risk. She is a trusted advisor to small and growing tech start-ups, counseling them in a wide variety of issues as they scale. She also represents high-tech companies in data privacy and security FTC investigations.

She joined Mayer Brown from the Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Competition, where she served as a deputy director under Chairman Joseph Simons and Acting Chairwoman Rebecca Slaughter.

BRITT M. MILLER

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, CHICAGO

BMILLER@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 312 701 8663

Britt Miller advises clients on high-stakes antitrust litigation and complex commercial litigation, representing domestic and international corporations in price-fixing, market allocation, monopolization, and conspiracy cases, and has also counseled clients on general antitrust issues.

Britt has led numerous antitrust cases including some of the largest, most high-profile antitrust cases filed in the US. Her antitrust work has involved a variety of products and industries including collegiate athletics (Alston, NIL, Carter), automotive (Wire Harness), computer systems and software (RealPage), collegiate financial aid, agriculture proteins (Beef, Pork, Salmon, Turkey), insurance, consumer financial services products, synthetic rubber (EPDM, NBR), aspartame, resins, household moving services, industrial chemicals, paper products (Containerboard), financial services (CDS, GSE, IRS, SSA), fertilizers (Potash), vitamins (BASF), and technology.

ORAL D. POTTINGER

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, WASHINGTON DC

OPOTTINGER@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 202 263 3218

Oral Pottinger advises clients on mergers and acquisitions, civil and criminal antitrust investigations, antitrust counseling, antitrust litigation, advertising and consumer protection matters. As a co-leader of Mayer Brown's Electronic Discovery & Information Governance practice, Oral has served as a trusted advisor to corporate clients identifying and implementing effective e-discovery solutions addressing many complex legal matters, including: government investigations, class action discovery, data breaches, information risk management, defensible disposition, and e-discovery best practices.

MATTHEW D. PROVANCE

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, CHICAGO

MPROVANCE@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 312 701 8598

Matthew Provance represents clients in complex civil antitrust litigation involving both monopolization and conspiracy claims and consumer class actions involving data privacy issues.

Matt has experience navigating large-scale, multiyear antitrust disputes that can often involve multiple defendants and plaintiffs, millions of pages of discovery, hundreds of depositions, and nine-figure damages claims. His engagements have spanned across numerous industries including agriculture and food, banking and financial services, software, residential and multifamily housing, sports, paper products, and construction materials. In the consumer privacy space, Matt has represented clients in some of the leading cases involving the Illinois Biometric Information Privacy Act (BIPA) and several other privacy statutes. Behind the scenes, Matt regularly advises his clients regarding antitrust and data privacy issues.

RICHARD S. SNYDER

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, WASHINGTON DC

RSSNYDER@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 202 263 3082

Clients turn to Rich for representation in antitrust litigation, US and global merger control for strategic transactions, and global cartel investigations. Rich appears in federal and state courts and before the FTC, DOJ, and foreign authorities.

Clients in a variety of industries (including financial services, publishing, entertainment, airlines, auto parts, consumer products, electronics components, and supermarket products) seek counsel from Rich regarding:

- Commercial and class action antitrust litigation in federal and state court. as well as global private damages arbitration and litigation strategy
- Merger reviews before the US Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission as well as global merger control strategy and execution
- Criminal antitrust investigations and global cartel defense

WILLIAM H. STALLINGS

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, WASHINGTON DC

WSTALLINGS@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 202 263 3807

William H. Stallings advises clients on domestic and global merger reviews, government investigations, cartels, litigation (including class actions), and government procurement matters. He regularly appears before the U.S. Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission.

Bill previously spent 17 years at the US DOJ's Antitrust Division, where he held several key roles, including Chief of the Transportation, Energy, and Agriculture Section. Bill had responsibility for second request merger reviews, civil conduct investigations, and litigating cases in industries such as airlines, oilfield chemicals and services, meatpacking, shipping, agricultural products, energy generation and distribution, and financial services.

For his outstanding service in antitrust enforcement, the DOJ awarded Bill the prestigious Neil E. Roberts Award.

DANIEL K. STORINO

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, CHICAGO

DSTORINO@MAYERBROWN.COM | +1 312 701 7686

Dan Storino advises clients on antitrust, health care, insurance and complex commercial litigation matters. He represents clients across the country in state and federal trials, arbitration and mediation proceedings, and civil and criminal investigations.

Dan's antitrust practice spans a variety of products and industries including health care, insurance, industrial chemicals, agricultural products, fertilizers, oil and gas, and the hospitality industry. He has extensive experience representing domestic and multinational corporations, health insurers, dental insurers, property and casualty insurers, and health care organizations in cases alleging monopolization, price-fixing, tying, resale price maintenance, market allocation, and exclusive dealing. Dan also counsels clients on antitrust compliance and other business practices.

DR. JOHANNES WEICHBRODT

PARTNER, MAYER BROWN, DÜSSELDORF

JWEICHBRODT@MAYERBROWN.COM | +49 211 86224 150

Dr. Johannes Weichbrodt focuses on competition, compliance, complex litigation, and CSR/ESG. With a background in civil and criminal procedural law as well as antitrust law, he advises on all aspects of European and German competition law and helps clients with all kinds of compliance issues. From the early investigations stage when enforcers come knocking all the way to the appellate courts if need be. With the benefit of having conducted hundreds of witness interviews across the globe in some of the largest cartel investigations to date, he focuses on cross-border internal investigations and setting-up international compliance programs. More recently, much of his work circles around ESG compliance, particularly Supply Chain Due Diligence aspiring to make the world a little better by mitigating human rights and environment-related risks to his clients supply chains.

© Mayer Brown | Attorney Advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.