

The image is a split-panel aerial photograph. The left panel shows a complex, winding hedge maze with vibrant green hedges and dark green trees in the background. The right panel shows a light-colored paved plaza with diagonal lines, a rectangular planter box filled with green shrubs, and shadows of trees cast onto the pavement.

MAYER BROWN

AI SUMMIT

SPEAKER BIOS

SEPTEMBER 18, 2025

SENATOR TOM UMBERG

STATE SENATOR | CALIFORNIA DISTRICT 34

Senator Tom Umberg is a retired U.S. Army Colonel, former federal prosecutor, and Chair of the California Senate Judiciary Committee. He represents Orange County and brings decades of public service experience, including three overseas military deployments and over 100 cases tried to verdict. Senator Umberg previously served as Deputy Drug Czar under President Clinton, focusing on international drug policy and interdiction. He has authored 76 laws and secured over $563 million in funding for his district. A small business owner and advocate for regulatory reform, he continues to champion public safety, veterans' issues, and responsible governance.

PHILIP RECHT

PARTNER | LOS ANGELES

PRECHT@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 213 229 9512

Co-leader of the firm's Public Policy, Regulatory & Government Affairs practice and former managing partner of the firm's Los Angeles office (2009-21), Phil Recht represents clients in legislative, regulatory, enforcement and litigation matters before and involving federal, state and local governments. He also handles grants, approvals, permits and other government transactions. He has particular expertise in transportation, infrastructure, tribal gaming, health care, trade association, government contracts, and election law matters. Legal 500 ranks Phil as a "Leading Lawyer" for Government Relations in the United States. Phil was selected in 2021 to the Los Angeles/San Francisco Daily Journal's list of "Top Lawyers of the Decade" for his work on emerging industry regulatory matters, and he was named in 2019 to The National Law Journal's inaugural list of "Government Relations Trailblazers."

ARSEN KOURINIAN

PARTNER | LOS ANGELES

AKOURINIAN@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 213 229 5141

Arsen Kourinian practices data privacy and artificial intelligence (AI) law, including addressing new and evolving legal issues involving data processing technology, such as remote sensing from outer space. He holds the AI governance professional (AIGP), fellow of information privacy (FIP), certified information privacy manager (CIPM), and certified information privacy professional (CIPP) credentials through the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP) for the United States (CIPP/US), Europe (CIPP/E), Canada (CIPP/C), and Asia (CIPP/A). Arsen further helps educate the next generation of data privacy and AI professionals by authoring the CIPP/US and the IAPP's inaugural AI governance professional exams and as a regular guest lecturer at UCLA School of Law.

Arsen is a thought leader in data privacy, adtech, and AI, having published many articles regarding nuanced issues in these fields and an e-book published on Bloomberg Law entitled, Implementing A Global Artificial Intelligence Governance Program. Arsen has also presented on these topics for numerous organizations and trade association groups and worked with companies to shape the landscape in these ever-evolving areas. He was also named a member of the State Bar of California's Consulting Group on the Establishment of a Legal Specialization in Privacy Law and was a member of The Interactive Advertising Bureau's (IAB) Privacy Implementation & Accountability Task Force, which brought together leaders in the privacy community to address critical privacy issues facing the adtech industry.

ANA BRUDER

PARTNER | FRANKFURT

ABRUDER@MAYERBROWN.COM +49 69 7941 1778

Clients turn to Ana Bruder for strategic advice in data privacy, cybersecurity and related matters, including the analysis of applicability and impact of old and new EU legislation such as the GDPR, NIS2 Directive, the Digital Operational Resilience Act (DORA), the Cyber Resilience Act (CRA), the Data Act and the Digital Services Act (DSA). Ana assists clients preparing for and reacting to cybersecurity incidents, including working closely with clients' cybersecurity, legal, management and communications teams as well as external forensic investigators, IT consulting firms and PR advisors to mitigate legal risks, assess and make required data breach notifications.

Corporations also benefit from Ana's experience in artificial intelligence (AI) matters, her comprehensive approach to the intersection of AI, privacy and cybersecurity, as well as the regulatory requirements under the EU AI Act. Ana assists clients with governance best practices, the classification of AI systems and AI risk management frameworks. Additionally, clients seek out Ana's counsel on technology transactions including cloud services, data and software licensing agreements, SaaS agreements, software development projects, e-commerce, and related cybersecurity and data privacy questions.

International clients, in particular, look to Ana for advice, as she has served as legal counsel in Germany, France and Brazil.

JONATHAN MARTIN

PRODUCT COUNSEL | THOMSON REUTERS

Jonathan is Product Counsel at Thomson Reuters where he advises on artificial intelligence, web accessibility, and marketing law for Thomson Reuters' products and services. Prior to joining Thomson Reuters, Jonathan practiced intellectual property and civil litigation at a leading boutique in Toronto, Ontario, Canada where he managed disputes for innovative and technology-focused firms. Jonathan is a problem solver and enjoys using practical and creative solutions to resolve matters that come before him.

DAWN JUNTILLA

ASSISTANT GENERAL COUNSEL | THOMSON REUTERS

Dawn Juntilla has over two decades of experience spanning legal, strategy, and product management roles, with a career that includes in-house positions at Fortune 500 companies and technology start-ups. She currently serves as Assistant General Counsel, Product at Thomson Reuters, where she leads the Product Counsel team supporting both Product and Product Marketing. Her team plays a critical role in advising on intellectual property and data rights, and serves as a key stakeholder in the company's compliance efforts related to emerging AI regulations and accessibility laws.

GAIL LEVINE

PARTNER | WASHINGTON DC

GLEVINE@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 202 263 3335

Gail Levine co-leads the firm's global Antitrust & Competition practice, which was recently recognized once again as among Global Competition Review's "Global Elite." Gail is a trusted advisor to clients with business-critical mergers or acquisitions facing antitrust issues. Her clients include Fortune 500 companies and PE firms, and she handles their merger control matters, represents them in investigations, and counsels them on antitrust risk. She is a trusted advisor to small and growing tech start-ups, counseling them in a wide variety of issues as they scale. She also represents high-tech companies in data privacy and security FTC investigations.

She joined Mayer Brown from the Federal Trade Commission's Bureau of Competition, where she served as a deputy director under Chairman Joseph Simons and Acting Chairwoman Rebecca Slaughter.

BRITT MILLER

PARTNER | CHICAGO

BMILLER@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 312 701 8663

Britt Miller advises clients on high-stakes antitrust litigation and complex commercial litigation, representing domestic and international corporations in price-fixing, market allocation, monopolization, and conspiracy cases, and has also counseled clients on general antitrust issues.

Britt has led numerous antitrust cases including some of the largest, most high-profile antitrust cases filed in the US. Her antitrust work has involved a variety of products and industries including collegiate athletics (Alston, NIL, Carter), automotive (Wire Harness), computer systems and software (RealPage), collegiate financial aid, agriculture proteins (Beef, Pork, Salmon, Turkey), insurance, consumer financial services products, synthetic rubber (EPDM, NBR), aspartame, resins, household moving services, industrial chemicals, paper products (Containerboard), financial services (CDS, GSE, IRS, SSA), fertilizers (Potash), vitamins (BASF), and technology.

MICHAEL LAWRENCE

SENIOR COMPETITION COUNSEL | GOOGLE

Michael Lawrence is an antitrust counselor and litigator with over 30 years of competition law experience -- both in-house at top technology companies and at major law firms. He is Senior Competition Counsel at Google. He joined Google in 2011 and is based in the company's headquarters in California. Previously, he worked at Intel Corporation for six years, handling competition matters. Before going in house, Michael was an associate at Latham & Watkins in Los Angeles. At Google, Michael counsels major business units on competition risks across the United States, Latin America, Europe, and Asia. He is also responsible for outreach and engagement with competition authorities across Latin America. Michael earned his bachelor's degree from UCLA and his law degree from Georgetown University. He is currently pursuing a postgraduate diploma program in EU Competition Law from King's College London.

KATIE LARKIN-WONG

DIRECTOR OF COMPETITION & LITIGATION | DOORDASH

Katie Larkin-Wong is the Director of Competition & Litigation at DoorDash, where she oversees a wide range of antitrust matters—from M&A and product counseling to investigations and litigation. She led DoorDash's competition strategy for the SevenRooms and Deliveroo acquisitions and drives the company's compliance efforts in this space. Prior to DoorDash, Katie was Associate General Counsel at Meta, where she supported major transactions like GIPHY and Kustomer, advised on Digital Markets Act compliance, and served as product counsel to Threads during its record-breaking launch. She began her legal career at Latham & Watkins in San Francisco, focusing on antitrust and white collar matters. Katie is also a dedicated community leader. She was named the American Heart Association's 2025 Woman of Impact for the Bay Area and serves on its Executive Leadership Team. She chairs the ABA's Standing Committee on Membership and holds leadership roles with the First District Appellate Project, the Institute for Inclusion in the Legal Profession, and Ms. JD. Katie earned her J.D. cum laude from Northwestern's Pritzker School of Law and holds a B.A. in Government and Psychology from Claremont McKenna College.

JOHN MANCINI

PARTNER | NEW YORK

JMANCINI@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 212 506 2295

John Mancini advises and represents clients in litigating copyright, trademark, trade dress, trade secret and patent disputes in courts across the country, as well as before the Copyright Royalty Board (CRB), the United States International Trade Commission (ITC), the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), and the USPTO Trademark Trial & Appeal Board (TTAB). John has successfully tried numerous complex intellectual property cases to successful bench and jury verdicts, all as lead counsel. In his practice, John has represented both public and private companies in a wide range of industries, with a particular concentration on the representation of technology, media, and telecom companies, such as Google, YouTube, LG, Spotify and AT&T.

PAUL FAKLER

PARTNER | NEW YORK

PFALKER@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 212 506 2441

Paul Fakler advises and helps favorably resolve cases for companies in the streaming, broadcasting, media, software, and other industries to advance their business objectives. Paul offers clients representation guided by a rich understanding of the intersection between music (and other content), technology, and business. He frequently speaks and publishes on legal developments in these fields and has over two decades of experience litigating seminal cases involving the application of copyright and related law to digital media.

Although he helps clients with issues across many types of content, Paul has particularly deep experience resolving copyright issues relating to music, where clients operating at the cutting edge of technology require equally innovative legal representation. Paul offers creative solutions based on his deep understanding of copyright law and technology through counseling, government relations, and – when necessary – litigation.

VICTORIA ELLIS

LEGAL COUNSEL IP/TRADEMARK | NESTLÉ HEALTH SCIENCE

Victoria Ellis serves as Legal Counsel at Nestlé Health Science, which is not the chocolate/coffee side of Nestlé, rather the vitamin, supplement, and pharmaceutical side of Nestlé. With a robust background in intellectual property, Victoria counsels all brands in the NHS portfolio on issues related to trademark, copyright, licensing, and more. Over the past two years, in response to the rapid advancement of Generative AI, she's also added artificial intelligence related counseling to her toolbelt. Prior to joining Nestlé, Victoria worked at two Am Law 200 firms where she handled various aspects of trademark and copyright matters.

DANNY WALVICK

SENIOR CORPORATE COUNSEL, MUSIC | PANDORA

Danny Walvick is an attorney at the intersection of music and technology, based in the San Francisco Bay Area. He currently serves in-house counsel at Sirius XM and its subsidiary, Pandora Media, where he counsels and advises the business (and negotiates commercial transactions) supporting the performance of music and music-related content on the company's various radio and streaming services. Danny began his career at a boutique entertainment law firm, where he supported musicians, record labels, film studios, concert promoters, authors, actors, producers, screenwriters, and start-ups across the digital entertainment ecosystem. Walvick earned his J.D. from UC Law San Francisco and his undergraduate degree from the University of Southern California's Thornton School of Music.

ROHITH GEORGE

PARTNER | NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

RGEOGE@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 650 331 2014

Rohith George is an experienced technology lawyer who companies turn to in order to plan, structure, and execute complex transactions. His practice involves helping companies with a range of commercial, strategic, and technology transactions, including contracting for digital infrastructure, outsourced services, cloud solutions, embedded financial services, and emerging technologies. He also advises companies on the technology and related integration issues associated with mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, and other complex corporate transactions.

Rohith has represented companies in many different industries, including technology, financial services, insurance, manufacturing, consumer products, and life sciences. He has managed transactions from multiple angles, with expertise representing both data center owners and operators as well as their tenants, financial institutions and their fintech partners, multinational outsourcing companies and their customers. Clients turn to him for his ability to approach deals with this problem-solving mindset.

GUNNAR HEINISCH

MANAGING COUNSEL | TOYOTA

Gunnar is Managing Counsel for Toyota North America (TMNA) with responsibility for technology transactions, IP, software/open-source licensing matters, and AI matters. During his time at Toyota, Gunnar has managed patent portfolios, supplier negotiations, research/collaboration agreements, and, most recently, assisted business partners in standing up an enterprise-wide AI organization. Gunnar has partnered with clients from a wide-range of disciplines, with a customer-first focus and has been acknowledged by leadership, peers, and clients for tackling difficult problems with practical solutions. Gunnar obtained a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from Kansas State University and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Houston Law Center.

PRABHA PARAMESWARAN

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR | ACCENTURE

Prabha Parameswaran is an Associate Director for Accenture, based in Chicago, and serves as Global Lead of Gen AI Commercial Contracting. Her work is focused on commercial transactions that involve Accenture's global business process and IT outsourcing, cybersecurity, and other various technology practice areas. Her deal experience focusses on Fortune 500 clients of Accenture in the high tech, communications, media, and financial services industries. Prior to joining Accenture in 2013, Prabha was the Associate General Counsel of US Foods and served as Senior Counsel at Aon Hewitt (formerly Hewitt Associates).

JOHN LABARRE

GENERAL COUNSEL | HARVEY AI

John is General Counsel at Harvey, a platform that makes generative AI useful and accessible to lawyers and other professionals. Before joining Harvey, he served as Vice President, Deputy General Counsel at Snowflake Inc., where he oversaw the legal teams responsible for commercial transactions, product counseling, intellectual property, privacy, security, and litigation. Prior to Snowflake, John was Senior Director of IP Strategy and Commercial Litigation at Zymergen, a synthetic biology start-up. John spent a decade at Google, leading the consumer hardware patents team and managing patent-related issues for products like Pixel phones, Chromebooks, Home devices, and Nest products. John also led Google's Patent Transactions team, handling inbound, outbound, and cross-licensing deals, as well as strategic acquisitions and divestitures. His career at Google began in 2009 where he spent 5½ years on the patent litigation team, where he defended the company in numerous patent cases, including several cases that went (successfully!) to trial. Before his tenure at Google, John was a patent litigator at Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher in New York.

STEPHEN LILLEY

PARTNER | WASHINGTON DC

SLILLEY@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 202 263 3865

Stephen Lilley is a partner in the Washington DC office of Mayer Brown. A member of the firm's Cybersecurity & Data Privacy, National Security, and Litigation practices, Stephen develops strategies to navigate cutting-edge and interrelated litigation, regulatory, and policy challenges rooted in data and technology. He has been named a "Leading Lawyer" for Cyber Law by the Legal 500.

Stephen has significant experience working with clients to identify, evaluate, and manage cybersecurity and data privacy risks; responding to cyber incidents and vulnerability disclosures; and defending businesses in related litigation. Stephen is regularly called upon to advise senior executives and board members on their most challenging cybersecurity risks, to help companies develop governance programs to mitigate those risks, and to lead training exercises to implement and refine those programs. Stephen has particular experience advising on cybersecurity and national security issues relating to the Internet of Things, including vehicles and medical devices, and to critical infrastructure, from financial institutions to operators of industrial systems. Widely recognized for his cybersecurity law and policy experience, Stephen previously served as Chief Counsel to the Senate Judiciary Committee's Subcommittee on Crime and Terrorism, where he focused on cybersecurity issues.

AIYSHA HUSSAIN

PARTNER | WASHINGTON DC

AHUSSAIN@MAYERBROWN.COM +1 202 263 3051

Aiysha Hussain advises multinational companies on matters involving national security and international trade, with a focus on export controls, the information and communications technology and services (ICTS) program, and economic sanctions. She regularly guides clients across a range of industries through complex regulatory frameworks administered by the Commerce Department's Bureau of Industry and Security (BIS), the Treasury Department's Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC), and the State Department's Directorate of Defense Trade Controls (DDTC). Aiysha also has significant experience leading internal investigations into potential violations of export control laws and US sanctions.

Aiysha Hussain brings more than 15 years of combined government and private sector experience to her practice. She previously served as Senior Policy Advisor to the Assistant Secretary of Export Administration at BIS, where she shaped regulatory priorities, advised on strategic initiatives involving China and Russia, including the development of export controls on artificial intelligence technologies, semiconductor manufacturing equipment, biotechnologies, and space technologies. She advises multinational companies on matters involving national security and international trade, with a focus on export controls, the information and communications technology and services (ICTS) program, and economic sanctions.

BRETT BACHTELL

VICE PRESIDENT & LEGAL COUNSEL DATA & CRISIS MANAGEMENT
QUALCOMM

Brett Bachtell is Vice President & Legal Counsel in Qualcomm's corporate legal group. Brett joined Qualcomm in 2016 and currently leads Qualcomm's Data Legal Team, focusing on cybersecurity, data security, privacy, product security, and similar matters both domestically and internationally. They hold an electrical engineering degree from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign and a law degree from DePaul College of Law. Additionally, Brett is a registered patent attorney. Before joining Qualcomm, they were a partner in the IP litigation group at McDermott, Will & Emery LLP.

QIUSI NEWCOM

PRINCIPAL CORPORATE COUNSEL | MICROSOFT

Qiusi Newcom is a Principal Corporate Counsel on Microsoft's Global Trade Legal team. Her practice focuses on regulatory compliance and governance issues under global sanction and export control laws. She advises key business units across Microsoft corporate group, including defense contracts, cloud infrastructure, emerging technologies such as quantum computing, commercial sales, and gaming. Before joining Microsoft, Qiusi worked for several years at an international law firm counseling clients on U.S. trade law matters such as compliance program development, licensing management, internal investigations, government enforcement actions, and foreign investment national security reviews.

VIEW ONLINE MATERIALS