

Disclosure of contracts for difference – new rules in force on 1 June 2009

From 1 June 2009, new rules will require disclosure of long contracts for difference and similar derivative products referenced to shares of certain UK issuers.

Our Capital Markets Alert Disclosure of contracts for difference: are you ready? summarises the new rules. It also identifies some action points for both affected issuers and CFD writers/holders.

If you have any questions or require specific advice on any matter discussed in this publication, please contact Annabel Evans, Michelle Wyatt or your regular contact at Mayer Brown.
