UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS
FOR THE SEVENTH CIRCUIT

██████████ Brown
v
S ████████ W ████████

Case No. ██████████

THE APPELLANT, PRO SE,
WANTS TO MAKE KNOWN HIS SATISFACTION
WITH COUNSEL APPOINTED BY THIS COURT

First ... the Appellant, ██████████ Brown, (Brown) wants to make clear that he has never [a]ctually composed any of the pro se pleadings, nor himself written anything else to any of the federal courts and/or to the law firm appointed by this court to represent Brown – with the inclusion of this pleading – although Brown has [p]ersonally signed all of the same. That is, Brown has solicited the help of another prisoner.

On July 1, 2008 Brown had opportunity to observe Attorney Andrew Pincus of Mayer Brown LLP on C-SPAN: American Constitution Society (ACS); Supreme Court Term Review which prompted Brown to again Shepardize said law firm which led Brown to the – Footnote #1 in Suggs v. U.S., 513 F.3d 675, 680 (7th Cir. 2008) “New counsel, Thomas M. McGrath from Mayer Brown, has done a splendid job representing Mr. Suggs on this appeal. As always on pro bono appointments accepted by attorneys from Mayer Brown, Marc Kadish has assisted Mr. McGrath on this appeal.”

On July 25, 2008 Brown received copy of the “Opening Brief” prepared by Mayer Brown for filing in this appeal.

Although said brief includes every point made by the [person] assisting Brown; however, said [person] would have never developed the “Estopped” theory proffered by said law firm whose brief is excellent and, in my view, unassailable.

Now, therefore, anything Brown wants to say to this court he will say it through Mayer Brown LLP heretofore.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

██████████ BROWN
