Scientific & Regulatory Advisor at Brussels Law Firm

Mayer Brown's REACH/Product Regulatory practice is looking for a Scientific & Regulatory Advisor for its Brussels office.

The Scientific & Regulatory Advisor will support the REACH/Product Regulatory legal team, notably by:

- » providing technical and scientific support, evaluating products' safety and conducting exposure-based risk assessments;
- » developing scientific and technical arguments in litigation matters, including before ECHA Board of Appeal and the European Court of Justice;
- » helping establish compliance of products with applicable legal and regulatory requirements (REACH, CLP, biocides, food contact materials, cosmetics etc.);
- » supporting advocacy activities on behalf of our clients.

The successful candidate will have a strong academic profile and hold a PhD or master degree in chemistry, biology and/or toxicology. He/ she will have 3-5 years of relevant experience as regulatory expert in the EU context, within a law firm, an EU Institution or Agency, a research institute or a private company.

Fluency in English (both oral and in writing) is required. French would be appreciated. Knowledge of other EU languages is an advantage.

Mayer Brown LLP offers a competitive remuneration package and a position in a highly dynamic and multinational environment.
