

The Social Media Revolution: A Legal Handbook

Table of Contents

| | |
|--|----|
| Preface | vi |
| Introduction | 1 |
| Issues for Companies that Operate Websites | 3 |
| Copyright | 3 |
| Viacom v. YouTube: Testing the Limits of the DMCA's Safe Harbor | 4 |
| Website Operators versus Users: Who Owns the Copyright? | 5 |
| Trademark | 5 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 8 |
| Defamation: Risks for Website Operators | 8 |
| The Old Approach: Website Operators Faced Greater Risk of Liability | 9 |
| Website Operators Are Now Freer to Edit Defamatory User Content | 10 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 12 |
| Privacy | 12 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 14 |
| Issues for Employers | 17 |
| Social Networking in Employment Decisions | 17 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 21 |
| Monitoring Social Networking Information During the Term of Employment | 21 |
| What Can an Employer Do Once the Employment Term Ends? | 27 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 28 |

| | |
|---|----|
| Litigating in the Age of Social Media | 32 |
| The Internet's Effect on Jurisdiction | 32 |
| Social Media as a Litigation Treasure Trove (or Nightmare) | 34 |
| The Legal Ethics of Social Media | 37 |
| Conflicts of Interest | 38 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 40 |
| The Duty of Confidentiality to a Client | 40 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 42 |
| Lawyer Advertising and Solicitation | 43 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 45 |
| Improper Publicity | 46 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 47 |
| Unauthorized Practice of Law | 48 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 49 |
| Contact with Other Parties to a Matter | 50 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 50 |
| The Duty of Candor | 51 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 52 |
| Decorum and Impartiality of the Tribunal | 52 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 53 |
| Misconduct | 53 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 55 |
| Responsibility for Subordinates | 56 |
| Recommendations to Reduce Risk | 56 |
| Endnotes | 61 |
| FAQ | 73 |